Membership

CLBC is an independent organization. Our focus is to expand statewide interest in our profession and network nationally.

CLBC is the California State affiliate of the Black Caucus of the American Library Association. Our President and/or the CLBC-BCALA Liaison represent our organization at ALA-BCALA Conventions.

Benefits of Membership:

- ❖ Networking
- ❖ Job Announcements
- ❖ Newsletter
- ❖ Scholarship
- ❖ Awards
- ❖ Advice and Mentoring
- ❖ Support on professional concerns
- ❖ Professional development

Opportunities for leadership and Service:

Louise Moses/Agnes Davis Committee, Leimert Park Village Book Fair Committee, CLA/CLBC Statewide Program Committee, Effie Lee Morris Lecture Series Liaison, BCALA Liaison, ALA National Convention Liaison, REFORMA Liaison, UCLA Liaison/Diversity Committee, Publicity Committee, Ways and Means Committee, Nominating Committee, CLBC Grants Committee, By-Laws Committee, Newsletter Committee, Publicity Committee, and other special events and more.

Annual dues are $30 for new and renewing members, $25 for retired librarians and free for students. Please make checks or money orders payable to California Librarians Black Caucus. Twenty-five percent of membership dues directly support the Southern or Northern Scholarship funds based on your location. Additional Contributions to the scholarship funds and other donations are welcomed. Please specify in the membership section.
